

Major Oak Day

February 20th 2010

This establishment is supporting the Friends of Sherwood Forest in celebrating Major General Hayman Rooke's Birth Day. The Major was noted for his love of trees in the County of Nottinghamshire and the Dukeries.

After the Major's death his Army rank given to the World's most famous tree >>

The "Major" Oak.

Please enquire of your Host as to the planned celebrations.

2023 will be the Tri-centenary year of Major General Rooke's Birthday, it is hoped by this time Major Oak Day will be firmly established as a National Day of Celebration.

Please see the website for further info.

Friends of Sherwood Forest.

www.MajorOak.org.uk

Please see the Website for more comprehensive information on the Major and the 20th February

Graphics and Images by Adrian Allen Photography Copyright 2009